Everything you need to know about Heading for the Hills in 2019

The Weekend

Head for the Hills is a getaway weekend of dance, music, and song, sponsored by Princeton Country Dancers. The musicians, callers, workshop leaders, and coordinators volunteer their talents and energy so that we can dance and party together. Once again we're heading for Camp Harlam, near Kresgeville in the hills of Pennsylvania – about a two-hour drive from Princeton, and only 90 minutes from Philadelphia.

The camp features two big and beautiful dance halls with excellent wooden floors, as well as smaller rooms for workshops and jamming. The modern heated rooms are double or quadruple occupancy with private or semi-private bathrooms. Meals are served family-style in a large dining room.

Children are welcome at Head for the Hills and may participate according to their ability in workshops and dances.

Silent Auction of Very Neat Stuff

Do you have good stuff in your cupboards or on your shelves that you no longer need? Or maybe a skill or service to offer? Every year we hold a silent auction to help us maintain the low weekend price (and clear our homes of surplus possessions).

Scholarships

We have some needs-based financial aid available from a scholarship fund. To apply for a scholarship, please fill out the registration form (indicating in the appropriate spot that you are applying for financial aid) and send in the form without payment OR if registering on-line, go to <https://www.princetoncountrydancers.org/about-hfth> and follow registration instructions for scholarship applicants. Call or email Lynda Lee at 609-233-1479, lynda@astro.princeton.edu, to discuss how much support you need (your application is, of course, handled confidentially). Applications made before October 1 will receive priority. You will be notified by October 10.

We welcome contributions to next year's scholarship fund; see the payment part on the other side of this form.
